

Obi's Interlude

Odeal

Safe, safe, safe, safe
Feel the sun and hold on your waist
Know the devil's got her holding away
But instead of running away
I'd rather the chase

Fate says to wait, to be honest, I would rather Jump from a place if we coming to a standstill
Pump on them brakes 'cause we're going any faster
Trust is a must till we throw it in the trash
Say I do it for the moment, baby, no, no, no way
When it's all said and done, you'll thank me some day
I need more from you if these feelings gon' stay
I need more from you, to be honest, I just want you to feel safe

Safe, safe, safe
Feel the sun and hold on your waist
Know the devil's got her holding away
But instead of running away
I'd rather the chase
Yeah, yeah

I need more from you, tell me, what's it gon' take?
I need more from you, tell me, what's it gon'—
I need you
Call me your audition and go to sing Broadway
Could be so simple, I just can't with your—
Attitude
Early in the morning, I be calling your name
Pulling up on you in the heat of broad day
When it's all said and done, you'll thank me some day
When you're done guarding your heart, I just want you to feel safe

Feel the sun and hold on your waist
Know the devil's got her holding away
But instead of running away
I'd rather the chase
Yeah, yeah
