

Passenger

Odeal

And so I
And this is for my, la-la-la

Pull up, Nike Tech hood up again
Shoulda never got a drop on your location, I'm hooked
Got me standing metres from your gate, girl I'm hooked
Shoulda never looked away, girl
Shoulda never looked away from you
Delayed the chance I had to say, "I do" to you, uh
But we'll still cross paths again, girl

You and I let pride take us left
Nothing new, was more than expected
Lesson learned, I'll keep my respect
Future self still ain't understanding
Open up, need more to attach
Curling up won't help you lay back and take me in
With confidence, yeah

Right passenger on the wrong journey
Lost touch but I'll promise I'll find ya
Long as the wheels keep turning
Cross paths at some point in our lives, yeah
My lighter lost fire, yeah
A spark is all I need to make you go on
'Cause I'm hopeless 'til I find you

Own (Yeah)
Own your own, baby, own up
You didn't from the jump
Made you stronger
Couldn't go longer, no baby
And I did, but you didn't notice though babe
You got way too attached for me, babe
And I wanted more of my time for me, babe
Yeah, yeah, yeah, you got way too attached for me

You and I let pride take us left
Nothing new, was more than expected
Lesson learned, I'll keep my respect
Future self still ain't understanding
Open up, need more to attach
Curling up won't help you lay back and take me in
With confidence, yeah

Right passenger on the wrong journey
Lost touch but I'll promise I'll find ya
Long as the wheels keep turning
Cross paths at some point in our lives, yeah
My lighter lost fire, yeah
A spark is all I need to make you go on
'Cause I'm hopeless 'til I find you

Mrs. Iverson, yeah
So long I've been searching
So long I've been hurting
You know my intentions

All of my obsessions
This is my confession
Lost your daughter, need her back, I need her to know

Right passenger on the wrong journey
Lost touch but I'll promise, I'll find ya
Long as the wheels keep turning
Cross paths at some point in our lives, yeah
My lighter lost fire, yeah
A spark is all I need to make you go on
'Cause I'm hopeless 'til I find you
Right passenger on the wrong journey
Lost touch but I'll promise, I'll find ya
Long as the wheels keep turning
Cross paths at some point in our lives, yeah
My lighter lost fire, yeah
A spark is all I need to make you go on
'Cause I'm hopeless 'til I find you
