

Sorry

Odeal

Take one

This the beginning of a new thing, of a new thing, yeah, yeah (Yeah, yeah)

I must have met this girl when she was like
She didn't know so I, so I explained it to her
Like, where I met her from, she was like

Let it sit up in your memory
I meditate, marinate

All them times I asked you to stay by my side
You said no, no, you said no
Now you want to come to me and play those games
Now you want to comfort me, like, where's your shame at?
You ain't got no shame, man
I said, you ain't got no shame, man
Where's your new man? Where's your new man?
I heard he's with your girl now, hella cute, man
See these hearts forgive, but I'm only human
So I try my best to show no emotions
I know you want me girl
I know that we part these ways
I know that I won't just let you look into my eyes
And say you're sorry
Girl, I know you're sorry
Girl, sorry
Girl, I know you're sorry, but I can't just let you in my life
You were supposed to be my wife
But all you did was wreck my life, wreck my life

So let it sit up in your memory, yeah, yeah, yeah
Marinate
Marinate, marinate
Marinate
Marinate
Marinate, ah
