

Water

Odeal

Somewhere in the water, I'm still standing
I'm so sure that I'll drown, but I keep hangin'
Cause at this point I'm tired of turning around, oh no
No matter where I turn it's the same thing

Girl, I know you're unsure now, now
But I'll give all of me, long as you're honest with me, girl
Girl, I wanna be yours now, now
Nothing bothers me like feelin' lost at sea, oh

Yeah, yeah
I think I'll sail, sail for your heart
Sail for your heart, without knowing the route
Journey was rocky, so, guess it was hard
Close to a casualty, you didn't notice
You didn't know me, I
Wasn't supposed to trust, I did it though
Enough for the both of us, through the highs and lows
I fell for you ruthlessly, and I'll let you know
Fell for them hopeless dreams, and I'll let you know

Couldn't make do with or without it
Just nothing feels good when I'm without it
I hate the state that I've been in
Uneasy, out of place, messed up
I'm staying out late, ash down my very last J
Still same question in my head, oh no

Girl, I know you're unsure now, now
But I'll give all of me, long as you're honest with me, girl
Girl, I wanna be yours now, now
Nothing bothers me like feelin' lost at sea, oh
