

I go the whole nine
Driving through the whole night
Hold you till the first light
So tight
Love is pain, right?

I lose sight
I can't see the signs
Blinded by my own fight
I take flight
I take flight

And it's all in my head
And I'm stood on the ledge
And the people
Walk through their day
While I'm trying to make sense of the prequel
I just want our love to be equal

I just want our love to be equal

I'd go the whole world
Let emotions unfurl
And my frustrations be heard
And nothing
Will ever take me higher again

And we're a wildfire
Balanced on a thin line
Between life
And some Heaven
Keeping it together

And it's all in my head
And I'm stood on the ledge
And the people
Walk through their day
While I'm trying to make sense of the prequel

And it's all in my head
And I'm stood on the ledge
And the people
Walk through their day
While I'm trying to make sense of the prequel
I just want our love to be equal

I just want our love to be equal
I just want our love to be equal
I just want our love to be equal
