

Amends

Odette

So let's make amends
Sew what's ripped and torn
Underneath this moon
Lyin' in a storm so bold and bright

There's salt spray on the cliffs
And a ringing in my ear
It's like there's someone whispering to me
But I just cannot hear

I sit and search for answers but they're hidden by a fog
I look and search for something but alas I'm left aghast

I want to go down
I don't want to fight
Set my body free
I just want to lie in the light in the long grass
I don't want to rush
I need to take my time
I want to learn to love myself again right now, tonight

I sit by the moss
Shadowed by the sun
Swallows dip and dive
They are hunting earthworms in the grass
I'm very overwhelmed
All I see is love
Love that burns and scorches the dirt
But it gives us everything we want

I sit and search for answers but they're hidden by a fog
I look and search for something but alas I'm left aghast

I want to go down
I don't want to fight
Set my body free
I just want to lie in the light in the long grass
I don't want to rush
I need to take my time
I want to learn to love myself again right now, tonight

So let's make amends
Sew what's ripped and torn
Underneath this moon
Lyin' in a storm so bold and bright
There's salt spray on the cliffs
And a ringing in my ears
It's like there's someone whispering to me
Whispering to me

I want to go down
I don't want to fight
Set my body free
I don't want to rush
I need to take my time

I want to go down
Set my body free
I don't want to rush
I need to take my time
