

Herald

Odette

I wanted to adore thee
I needed to move my feet
But I lay to the standstill tempo of your heartbeat
You were curled over like a leaf about to fall free

I wondered if this was death
I thought it was happiness
And I loved and lusted over your listlessness
We'd paled in the lightless room, I was distressed

Tenderly, I tended to you
Now I don't know why
I was bluer than a blue moon
Herald our divide
Herald our divide

I've started to roam the streets
Night is terrifying
But I'll face my fears even if it damn kills me
And I'll stand as strong as an ox in an alley

Passively, your truth conceded
I still don't know why
You sure lacked any convictions
Herald our divide
Herald our divide
Herald our divide

You (you)
Can't (can't)
Forge a love from fakery

I (I)
Won't (won't)
Watch your quiet suffering

'Cause
I'm (I'm)
More (more)
Than what you could not provide
Herald our divide
Herald our divide

You (you)
Can't (can't)
Forge a love from fakery

I (I)
Won't (won't)
Watch your quiet suffering

'Cause
I'm (I'm)
More (more)
Than what you could not provide
Herald our divide
Herald our divide
