Odette

Crystal clear, I saw you leave
I saw you lie, I'm undermining you
Brown [?] won't hide my fears
Blood stained sunshine comes with a price

Now strike down your fist
Climb the gates to the opener
It's hard to make you see
When you are oh so blind on worry

There's no time to cry
You wanna see a world without
[?] swimming in the river
We could fly higher than high
Light headed, I know you're a sight seer
Can I see your mind, no I can't
Wanna read your mind but I can't
I don't feel alive but I am
Make me feel alive, I know you can

Love is a game and a way that I can't remember
Two of the same cannot stay or pretend forever
I was not told there were rules to be followed
Smallest comes last and I gotta stay hollow

Tell me that you love, I never ask why
Mythical feelings flooding my mind
Fairytale prophecies, conditions never underlined
If it's all real sign my name on the dotted line

There's no time to cry
You wanna see a world without
[?] swimming in the river
We could fly higher than high
Light headed, I know you're a sight seer
Can I see your mind, no I can't
Wanna read your mind but I can't
I don't feel alive but I am
Make me feel alive, I know you can

[?] calling out in thick breaths
Feeling like I'm suffocating
Now I'm really tired of waiting
And I'm coming round midnight
Expect me to act right
Nails down a blackboard, let me
I'm sorry, keep on with the same thing
[?] world spinning
Soon we will collide, it's just a matter of Timing, make sure it's the right thing
You won't let me break
I know you will keep standing

There's no time to cry
You wanna see a world without pain
[?] swimming in the river
We could fly higher than high

Light headed, I know you're a sight seer
Can I see your mind, no I can't
Wanna read your mind but I can't
I don't feel alive but I am
Make me feel alive, I know you can

There's no time to cry
You wanna see a world without pain
[?] swimming in the river
We could fly higher than high
Light headed, I know you're a sight seer
Can I see your mind, no I can't
Wanna read your mind but I can't
I don't feel alive but I am
Make me feel alive, I know you can
