Toss me out with the water
Toss me out like old friends
I don't wanna bother
I just wanna know how this will end
'Cause I talk too much about me and you're too kind
Always being attentive while I resign

Toss me out with the water
Toss me out if you will
I know I'm fit for the fodder
But are you in for the kill?
'Cause I'm too much like my mother
I'm insecure
Always looking for someone to want me more

Toss me out with the water
Toss me out if you can
I know I'm tougher to swallow
Always slip out of your hands
'Cause I'm too much like my father
I'm always gone
Always waiting for someone to do me wrong
