

Sacrifice

Odyssey

Their darkest days are over
Women and children died
No magic mirror saved them
From the other side
Not even love for shelter
Black evil lingers on
To find the world is just
The devil in disguise

He'll try to rape and crush you
He'll take you by surprise
You're only his to crucify

You'll drown in your own sorrow
Your weakness comes to light
You're the only his to sacrifice

Beauty deceiving reign
On deaths command I die
Traitor of man
You have betrayed he who shall lie
For this is but the prelude
Of what mans eye will see
And witness all that he
Had feared reality

He'll try to rape and crush you
He'll take you by surprise
You're only his to crucify

You'll drown in your own sorrow
Your weakness comes to light
You're the only his to sacrifice
