Of Mice & Men

The mind is a traitor
(The mind is a traitor)
The heart loses strength
(The heart loses strength)
The past, an invader
(The past, an invader)
The present evades
(The present evades)
The spirit eludes
(The spirit eludes)
The body decays
(The body decays)
The hummingbird seeks
(The hummingbird seeks)
The vulture can only wait
(The vulture can only wait)

When the storm buried in your blood
Starts to rain on everything you touch
When it only ever grows
And it never goes away
I hope you feed the flowers
Feed the flowers
Feed the flowers
You see along the way
Along the way

Don't fear the weather in your bones
Don't fear the weather in your bones
The water makes the garden grow

When the storm buried in your blood
Starts to rain on everything you touch
When it only ever grows
And it never goes away
I hope you feed the flowers
Feed the flowers
Feed the flowers
You see along the way
Along the way

The mind is a traitor
(The mind is a traitor)
The heart loses strength
(The heart loses strength)
The past, an invader
(The past, an invader)
The present evades
