

Dustin Hoffman Becomes Indignant and Wets Himself

of Montreal

I know this kid with really long hair
Likes to kiss you in public places
He gives good looks
And really pretty conversations, hey, hey
I'm not like him, I don't speak well in any place

I know this kid with a really nice clique
Likes to drag you into places
He takes nice walks
And would like to add you to his list
I know this kid with really nice feet
And really big teeth, hey, hey
I'm not like him, I don't ask much of you to hang out with me

I know this kid with a really nice face
And a really special personality
He likes to stay out, sees and notes the goings-on Always likes to be in the center, hey
I'm not like him, I don't ask much of you to hang out with me
