

Kissing in the Grass

of Montreal

Kissing in the grass smiling to say
"oh golly gee I think you're dreamy" learning so much that way I do tend to believe there's precious little that could amount to more Then kissing in the grass smiling to say
"oh golly gee I hear bells ringing" forgetting so much that way I do tend to believe there's precious little that illuminates us more then kissing in the grass

Kissinginthe grass
Kissinginthe grass
Kissinginthe grass
