

Echoes

Of Virtue

Take a look outside
Is this what we perceived?
Was it worth the price of losing our identity?
Greed took our souls
And all that we love
We all make mistakes
But this cost us everything

Tell me, is anybody out there?
Can you hear me through the static of the frequencies?
The silence can be deafening
Can you tell me? Is anybody out there?
If you hear me you are not alone
Follow my voice as it echoes

I have warmth
I have shelter in place
For you to come and feel safe
(To get away)
To escape from the death and decay
To survive another day

Greed took our souls
And all that we love
We all make mistakes
But this cost us everything

Tell me, is anybody out there?
Can you hear me through the static of the frequencies?
The silence can be deafening
Can you tell me? Is anybody out there?
If you hear me you are not alone
Follow my voice as it echoes

Someday I'll find a signal
I won't give up, I'm holding hope
I'm not alone
I've been searching far and wide
For anyone that's survived
I hope, I hope I'm not alone

Tell me, is anybody out there?
Can you hear me through the static of the frequencies?
The silence can be deafening
Can you tell me? Is anybody out there?
If you hear me you are not alone
Follow my voice as it echoes
