

Immortal

Of Virtue

The bombs will drop into the homes of those we know
The fallout of the impact will break their bones

The smoke will rise and hide the victims in the night
Our loved ones fight, falling to the hands of time
But I must try

Embrace the tidal wave
Unleash the hurricane
Lose yourself and everything you know
To be immortal
To be immortal

I stand alone, naked with my chest exposed
The cold will carve its name into the core of my soul

Embrace the tidal wave
Unleash the hurricane
Lose yourself and everything you know
To be immortal

And the first thing that goes
Is the way that you were
It's a gift and a curse
It's a home and a hearse

And the first thing that goes
Is the way that you were
It's a gift and a curse
It's a home and a hearse

Embrace the tidal wave
Unleash the hurricane
Lose yourself and everything you know
To be immortal

Embrace the tidal wave
Unleash the hurricane
Lose yourself and everything you know
To be immortal
