True Colors

Of Virtue

You're still the same
You're poisonous snake
Spitting venom every time you speak
Like a dark cloud hanging overhead
All your lies resurface again

You'll never change
Forever in vain
Lying through your teeth
Every time you breathe
Watch as everything you love walks away (walks away)
You don't deserve all the love I gave

You tried to take, take away all the things that you said to me (that you said to me)
You tried to make me forget all the ways that you hated me

You tried to take, take away all the things that you said to me (made me feel so small)
You tried to make me forget all the ways that you hated me (made me feel so low)
Out of sight, out of mind
You took the best of me
Left me out, high and dry
You tried to make me forget all the ways that you treated me
Like I was nothing

What did you think you'd gain?
By hiding behind all the love you faked?
You'll never change (you'll never change)
Why did you lead me to think
You'd always be there and you'd always love me?

There will come a time that I may forgive you
But today is not the day
Your actions spoke as loud as your words
Your true colors were shown

When you tried to take, take away all the things that you said to me
You tried to make me forget all the ways that you hated me

You tried to take, take away all the things that you said to me (made me feel so small)
You tried to make me forget all the ways that you hated me (made me feel so low)
Out of sight, out of mind
You took the best of me
Left me out, high and dry
You tried to make me forget all the ways that you treated me
Like I was nothing

You have no spine
Watch as everything you love walks away
You destroyed all the good that was left in me

Take, take away all the things that you said to me (that you said to me)
Make me forget all the ways that you hated me (that you hated me)

Take, take away all the things that you said to me (take them away, take the m away)
Make me forget all the ways that you hated me (that you hated me)

Take, take away all the things that you said to me
Make me forget all the ways that you hated me
