

Nobody Else

Ofenbach

Nobody else but you, you, you
Nobody else but you
Nobody else but you you you and your love

I'm wide awake
Try to drink you out of my head
And burn down everything you left behind
I'm on replay
I stay underneath the low light
Almost broken on the inside
Oh, why?

I run from the past and I run from the truth
Nobody else but you, you, you
Nobody else but you
All that I had
When you're gone I'm no good
Nobody else but you, you, you
Nobody else but you

Nobody else but you, you, you
Nobody else but you
Nobody else but you you you and your love

Nobody else but you, you, you
Nobody else but you
Nobody else but you you you and your love

Nobody else but you, you, you
Nobody else but you
Nobody else but you you you and your love

Nobody else but you, you, you
Nobody else but you
Nobody else but you you you and your love

Got to escape
When I smoke you out of my lungs
You're too bitter sweat on my tongue to feel high
But I'm too afraid to admit that I got it all wrong
But you're still the one I want tonight

I run from the past and I run from the truth
Nobody else but you, you, you
Nobody else but you
All that I had
When you're gone I'm no good
Nobody else but you, you, you
Nobody else but you

Nobody else but you, you, you
Nobody else but you
Nobody else but you you you and your love

Nobody else but you, you, you
Nobody else but you
Nobody else but you you you and your love

Nobody else but you, you, you
Nobody else but you
Nobody else but you you you and your love

Nobody else but you, you, you
Nobody else but you
Nobody else but you you you and your love
Nobody else but you
