

Not Sorry

Off Bloom

Conversation

The two-or-three-drink-in-a-row situation, yeah

Lost my patience

A little too honest with you, couldn't fake it, mmh

Streetlights and avenue speeding by, shit, I need air (na-na, ah)

Talking to you 'bout that bullshit you do 'cause I care (ah-na-na)

God damn scared

About what people are thinking of you (oh-no-no)

Too drunk to care

Spraying words all over you, yeah

I wanna be sorry, I'm really not sorry

Take it or leave it, I'm just tryna tell you the truth

But you're so god damn scared

About what people thinking of you

I know you hate this

But you're tweetin' about me and you and how you made it

An invitation (invitation)

Always too scared to be true, you never face it (mmh yeah)

Streetlights and avenue speeding by, shit, I need air

Get me out of here

Talking to you 'bout that bullshit you do 'cause I care (ah-na-na)

God damn scared

About what people are thinking of you, mmh yeah (oh-no-no)

Too drunk to care

Spraying words all over you, hey

I wanna be sorry, I'm really not sorry

Take it or leave it, I'm just tryna tell you the truth

But you're so god damn scared

About what people thinking of you

I'm sober now and it's on my mind

But the words are out and there's no rewind

And we will get over this in time

Funny how truth becomes a crime

But it's killing me, you're still so god damn scared (oh-na-na)

God damn scared

About what people are thinking of you, oh-na-

na (about what people are thinking of you)

Too drunk to care (too drunk to care)

Spraying words all over you, yeah

I wanna be sorry, I'm really not sorry

Take it or leave it, I'm just tryna tell you the truth

But you're so god damn scared

About what people thinking of you
