Polaroid Pictures

Off Bloom

So I take my time, I'm sorry
I don't miss your hands on my body
Ain't nobody tell me to hurry
Until you get it right, not sorry
Take my space from your shit and go party
We're burning the night away

Coming up on New York and Indy
Telling stories of fears from within me
I feel the blues but I'll be fine
Looking at our Polaroid pictures
From when we did the poetry lectures
I'm burning some 'cause I'll be fine

No need to save me, I'm easy
Just made me crazy lately
No need to save me, I'm easy
Just made me crazy lately

It's like taking steps into freedom
Don't need you to tell me where I'm from
I learned to put my foot down when I'm done
Feels like nothing else to let go
Of something that's holding you back, no
Let's set it on fire, no

Coming up on New York and Indy
Telling stories of fears from within me
I feel the blues but I'll be fine
Looking at our Polaroid pictures
From when we did the poetry lectures
I'm burning some 'cause I'll be fine

No need to save me, I'm easy
Just made me crazy lately
No need to save me, I'm easy
You just made me crazy lately

No need to save me, I'm easy
Just made me crazy lately
(Oh, yeah you made me crazy)
No need to save me, I'm easy
You just made me crazy lately
