

Severe Errand

Off With Their Heads

I can't afford
To be understated
I can't ignore
I'm under appreciated
But I can't restore
What cannot be recreated
And there is nothing more
That can be done to save this

I'd like to believe
I can get my feet on the ground
Until it's clear
I'll stop coming around
Coming around

I'll pick it up off the ground
And take it with me
I'll stop coming around
Coming around

I'll pick it up off the ground
And take it with me
I'll stop coming around

I'll stop coming around
Coming around

I'll pick it up off the ground
And take it with me
I'll stop coming around
