

Until the Day...

Off With Their Heads

There's no place I'd rather be
Then anywhere else but here
Can't you see that I'm sick and tired of all the bullshit.

I've got about six friends here that I still believe
Don't give a fuck about anything
Everyone else needs a lesson in what we call loyalty.

All of a sudden I finally see
What's been right in front of me
Tonight, I'm gonna to something about it.

There's no one more deserving to be
Beaten to death on a busy street
I wonder if anyone will try to stop me

Keep on lying to everybody
They're all fucking sheep and they'll always believe you
Know that I always get the last laugh
And there's nothing you can do, sit back

Cause I'll never let it go
And I'll just let it grow
Until the day I die I fucking swear
I'm gonna make your life as miserable as mine.
