

For reasons, for reasons, for reasons,
You can't understand, no (4x)

I gotta get away, if I'm ever gonna find a cure
I gotta separate myself from the rest of the world
I gotta be alone right now

Thank you for all that you've done,
But it's slim and it wasn't enough
The doctors, the dealers, the shrinks and friends can't help as much
As being alone right now

It's everything I want, it's everything I need
It's all that I can hope for now that I don't have to run

It's everything I want, it's everything I need
It's all that I can hope for
Living in desolation, in desolation....

For reasons, for reasons,
I can't describe without seeming insane

For reasons, for reasons
I'm flushing myself down and getting away

For reasons, for reasons
Never coming back, never again

For reasons, for reasons
I'll find myself or you'll find me dead

I gotta get away, if I'm ever gonna find a cure
I gotta separate myself from the rest of the world
I gotta be alone right now

It's everything I want, it's everything I need
It's all that I can hope for
Living in desolation, in desolation....
