Look

When you hear this one you know it's pain but I'm trying to do things different

How many man have we turned Usain, or got down? Ask them they'll say different

I'm a popular loner, been that guy from school that guy from quayback
I'm my own best friend believe me when I say that

Lately I've been at war with my best things anxiety and stress all trying to compress me

They don't understand they don't get me, it's like Naruto is techy
Countless sleepless nights my eyes got red my Sharingan has awoken
See I'm broken, I miss my bro, long time that we ain't spoken

I feel like the chosen one like Moses, had to deliver my people
They said thou shall fear no evil, lord let me ting that fear them people

See my broskis tuff he's got a wap, he's not really into the poking
I got a love for my [?] guys go try the thing go see if I'm joking
Be careful who you call your brother, we all know the story about Cain and Abel

Are you with me just for the fame? Are you with me just for the label?

Don't care what they bring to the table, see what they do don't faze me

I've seen a couple neeks move shady, it's mad what they do for the ladies

I got a new whip I ditched the Volkswagen but I still ride with a Polo

For the days I be riding solo I got two things Yaya and Kolo

You get fried like dodo, or you get fried like planting

Bros not really into the ranting, he just wanna buss off the-

These girls are rinsed using recycled me I can't trust no bitch

He was meant to do five he only done two me I can't fuck with snitch

I can't love no more I can't trust no more because it's funny how people switch

Stacking peace when I'm trying to get rich I'm trying to do this shit legit

Man I hate this circular life too many nigs wanna be that guy

Why they got energy on the net life the live woman the camera shy

We got sweets that's big boy bang face they love me she won't break off her spine

She loved me cause I bussed these rhymes but I can't love I can't trust I'm fine

I got a new whip I ditched the Volkswagen but I still ride with a polo

But for the days I'd be riding solo

I got two things Yaya and Kolo

You'll get fried like dodo or you'll get fried like planting

Bro's not really into the ranting off you just want to bust off the hunt
