

Hanging By A Thread

The Offspring

I can see the way it burns right before my eyes
I can feel this fear return every single night

Hey, oh
Come closer to the edge
I'll be there now, don't you worry
Hanging by a thread
Hanging by a thread

Let it wash it away from me, things I hold inside
All the things I can't unsee, heavy on my mind

Hey, oh
These ghosts are in my head
I'll be here in case you notice
Hanging by a thread

Take me away from all these lies
Take me, I'm covering my eyes
Save me, I've ripped it all to shreds
Save me, I'm hanging
Hanging by a thread
Hanging by a thread

Go
Hanging by a thread

I am hanging by my own sanity
I am waiting to fall
I am living my own false tragedy
I am waiting to fall

I have seen the way it burns right before my eyes
Past the point of no return, it's all inside my mind

Hey, oh
These ghosts are in my head
I'll be here in case you notice
Hanging by a thread

Take me away from all these lies
Take me, I'm covering my eyes
Save me, I've ripped it all to shreds
Save me, I'm hanging
Hanging by a thread
Hanging by a thread
