

I See Her Face

Ogie Alcasid

I see a picture frame hanging on the wall
I see an image of a woman
And I see places that I do
But your face is

I am the boss
Call her on my name
I hear her saying
That she wants to play no games
And I hear people telling me
What a woman she could be

(I see)
I see her face
(I see)
I see her face, yeah

And then you look and call her
That I turn
There's always something new
That I learn
I'm looking for this time
I'd be with her

She taught me how it is
To be vain
The reason for being is to be concealed
And I must have turned in me
What a woman she could be

(I see)
I see her face, yeah yeah
(I see)
I see her face, yeah yeah
(I see)
I see her face
(I see)
I see her face, yeah

And everytime I would want
To now move on
The reason just why you are so far
From me
From me

(I see)
I see her face, yeah
(I see)
I see her face, yeah
(I see)
I see her face, yeah yeah, baby
(I see)
I see her face

(I see)
You're all I'm dreaming of You're all I'm thinking of

You're all I'm dreaming of
On every day and every night
(I see)
You're all I'm dreaming of
Baby, oh, baby
(I see)
