

I'll Be Yours Forever

Ogie Alcasid

Another day and you're still gone
Oh what went wrong?
Why did this happen?

Another day and I'm still alone
How can I go on?
Baby I need you back

If I could only tell you all the things I wanna say
Then maybe you can see it my way

If I could only have you in my arms again, oh
I would never let you go
If you could believe that I would never let you down, oh
I'll be yours forever

How could you leave me in the dark?
Right from the start
Forever it's you and I

Was it me who hurt you or did you find another love?
Oh I feel so betrayed
What am I to do?

If I could only have the chance to fight for you again
Then maybe you would see that I am a man

If I could only have you in my arms again, oh
I would never let you go
If you could believe that I would never let you down, oh
I'll be yours forever

If I could only have the chance to fight for you again
Then maybe you would see that I am a man

If I could only have you in my arms again, oh
I would never let you go
If you could believe that I would never let you down, oh
I'll be yours forever

If I could only have you in my arms again, oh
I would never let you go
If you could believe that I would never let you down, oh
I'll be yours forever

If I could only have you in my arms again
I'll be yours forever
