

Take All the Time You Need

Oh Honey

You are sweet as honey bee
I just can't believe you're mine
You stuck around when I lost my head
Oh, our love is so divine

Sometimes I need space
Get lost in my brain
Stay so I feel safe

You are sweet as a honey bee
Won't you say that we'll be fine

Oh my darling, take all the time you need
Oh my darling, take all the time you need
There ain't no place I'd rather be
Oh my darling, take all the time you need

You've got eyes eyes honest as the skies
I'd waste all my time with you
Hair turns gray and the pictures fade
But somehow our love stays new

Some days I need change
Most I can't complain
Stay so I feel safe

You've eyes honest as the skies
We're a knot they can't undo

Oh my darling, take all the time you need
Oh my darling, take all the time you need
There ain't no place I'd rather be
Oh my darling, take all the time you need

Ooooh, ooooh, take all the time you need
Ooooh, ooooh, take all the time you need

You are sweet as a honey bee
Say you'll be forever mine

Oh my darling, take all the time you need
Oh my darling, take all the time you need
There ain't no place I'd rather be
Oh my darling, take all the time you need
