

Bleed

Oh Land

I give you my all
I give you all my time
I tell you all my secrets
But never what's behind

Contorting into shapes
Uneven give and take
I'm doing all I can
But I'm always running late

What do you want from me, here to infinity
I can't seem to fill that void
There's always an edit, a message embedded
But I think I misread it

I, I do it to myself
I m running on that wheel
I'm chasing after likes cuz I like the way it feels
And no it doesn't help
The hurt that doesn't heal
I'm chasing after highs cuz the lows are way too real
Bleed...
We always on each other's feeds
Can someone undo and delete
The way we bleed

When I was a kid
I used to have this dream
That I would be remembered
I would have legacy

But memory's destroyed
Nostalgia is a toy
I've already forgotten
What I came here to enjoy

Right or so wrong by the end of this song
I bet you've already moved on
Clickbait community, old news is new to me
Oh, the tempo is gone

I, I do it to myself
I m running on that wheel
I'm chasing after likes cuz I like the way it feels
And no it doesn't help
The hurt that doesn't heal
I'm chasing after highs cuz the lows are way too real
Bleed...
We always on each other's feeds
Can someone undo and delete
The way we bleed

What happened to you, swear I haven't seen you posting in week
Oh, is she sick or is she dead somebody saw her on the street
I heard she had a kid, I heard she's single, read it in a tweet
Anyway refresh my feed

I, I do it to myself
I m running on that wheel
I'm chasing after likes cuz I like the way it feels
And no it doesn't help
Bleed...
The way we bleed...
