

How It Goes

Oh Wonder

On Mondays I wake up invisible
On Tuesdays I don't feel quite right
In the middle of the week it seems impossible
On Thursdays I just pray for night

And the weekend comes
When everybody's dancing with their friends in the city
Looking pretty
Yeah, the weekend comes
And I'm alone dreaming I was a little more brave

But I guess that's how it goes, it goes
I guess that's how it goes, it goes
I guess that's how it goes, it goes
I guess that's how it goes, it goes
Sometimes

Oh

Somedays I just pretend I'm evergreen
I keep my cards close to my chest
But every now and then I'm better than I've ever been
But it don't last that long I guess

'Cause the weekend comes
When everybody's dancing with their friends in the city
Looking pretty
Yeah, the weekend comes
And I'm alone dreaming I was a little more brave

But I guess that's how it goes, it goes
I guess that's how it goes, it goes
I guess that's how it goes, it goes
I guess that's how it goes, it goes
Sometimes

It goes sometimes

Maybe one day I'll be invincible
Won't let my demons bring me down
And every now and then I'm gonna feel incredible
I'm gonna feel incredible
