

Cliff Jumps

Ohbijou

I know where the heartbeats stop I've seen the cliffs where jaws are dropped In weightless streams of light released from sparks

I know how I lost my sight with one quick glance into blazing eyes I've seen through dark, pitch black to find you there

I know where all sweetness lies in dug up holes where our bodies lie Entwined by love, oh love entwined by love

I'll be everything
