

We Lovers

Ohbijou

Listen close the beat is fading
Fast into chests with arms colliding
Under wraps my arms wrap tightly
Around this it's so exciting

'Cause I ain't fit for this lying
Give me time, the sea will split
And give way to this morning
Where we lovers are soaking
In the thunder of last evening

The moon falls in lines of silver
Reflected light on the still water
Bring me life in a million colours
Bring me love like no other

'Cause I ain't fit for this lying
Give me time, the sea will split
And give way to this morning
Where we lovers are soaking
In the thunder of last evening
