

Want

Olamide

I want a little bit of your love
A little bit of your touch
A little of your special special special nature
I want a little bit of your love
A little bit of your touch
A little of your special special special nature

Stop playing games I... wanna see your face (ah)
Back to the days (ah)
You call me on face time before we fell in love and you said I was your crush (ah)
Miss way you blush, lost in the sauce
Now you wanna be alone like huh Henny with no chaser Pencil and eraser we used to be close
The reason I chose ya cause you are a soldier
You handle your biz like a motherfucking boss ya

Hmmm... no leave me alone (babe...)
Dirty memories keep flashing
Weh me give it to you for the back seat
Ina mi Porche ina mi Bentley
Omo your bo-bo body deadly
You ma naughty naughty shawtie
Little cutie thing I'm sorry picture me grabbing your booty mua
h muah
I know you like that, I hope you write back

"Hello, no one is available to pick your call, please, leave a message after the tone"

"Hey babes, holla back at me when you get my message"
