

A Million Things

Old Dominion

I gotta say, babe
When I look in your eyes
I feel like I know everything
And nothin' at the same time
If someone ever asked me
How to describe
I can talk their ear right off
Until the end of time

Love is a "Come pick me up. I need you"
Song in the middle of the night that keeps you
Fallin' and fallin', you're killin me callin' me "baby"
Earrings on my side of the bed
Watchin' you paint your toenails red
Drivin' and cryin' and breakin' and bendin' and endin' up
Countin' all my blessings like one, two, three
Baby, you're one in a million 'cause your love is a million things

It's the way that a dirty word
Falls outta your mouth
And how you're the only star
Lightnin' up this little town
All the ways that you love me, it's hard to keep count

Love is a "Come pick me up. I need you"
Song in the middle of the night that keeps you
Fallin' and fallin', you're killin me callin' me "baby"
Earrings on my side of the bed
Watchin' you paint your toenails red
Drivin' and cryin' and breakin' and bendin' and endin' up
Countin' all my blessings like one, two, three
Baby, you're one in a million 'cause your love is a million things

I only got one word, no whisper to tell you how
It don't do it justice, does it now?
Does it now?
Mm hmm

Love is a "Come pick me up. I need you"
Song in the middle of the night that keeps you
Fallin' and fallin', you're killin' me callin' me "baby"
Earrings on my side of the bed
Watchin' you paint your toenails red
Drivin' and cryin' and breakin' and bendin' and endin' up
Countin' all my blessings like one, two, three
Baby, you're one in a million 'cause your love is a million things

Your love is a million things

'Cause your love is a million things
