

What Doesn't Kill a Memory

Old Dominion

Bobby pins in the dresser
Makeup stains in the sink
That shampoo in the shower
Smells like you all over me
I cleaned you out of my closet
Kissed your pictures goodbye
Threw out your favorite nail polish
That matched the green in your eye

Heard it said
If you fall off of the wagon, you get back on it again
But you're all up in my head
I can't replace you, I can't even erase you

What doesn't kill a memory (Memory)
Only makes it stronger (Only)
Throwing wishes in a whiskey well
It don't help to get you any goner
I used to see you when I closed my eyes
Now I feel you like you're by my side, no lie
What doesn't kill a memory (Memory)
Only makes it stronger (Only)

You're probably back in Virginia
Doors off of your Jeep
But you're still stickin' around
Just like a hole in my jeans
You used to put your hand in the back pocket of Back when the two of us used to walk around with a black coffeeshop buzz

What doesn't kill a memory (Memory)
Only makes it stronger (Only)
Throwing wishes in a whiskey well
It don't help to get you any goner
I used to see you when I closed my eyes
Now I feel you like you're by my side, no lie
What doesn't kill a memory (Memory)
Only makes it stronger (Only)

What gets me drunk, gets me thinkin' of you
What gets me drunk, gets me thinkin' of you

Yeah, I've heard it said
If you fall off of the wagon, you get back on it again
But then again, if I'm bein' honest
I'm so glad I met you even if I can't forget you

What doesn't kill a memory
Only makes it stronger
Throwing wishes in a whiskey well
It don't help to get you any goner
I used to see you when I closed my eyes
Now I feel you like you're by my side, no lie
What doesn't kill a memory (Memory)
Only makes it stronger (Only)

What gets me drunk, gets me thinkin' of you (Yeah)

What gets me thinkin' gets me drinkin' about you
It only makes it stronger
What gets me drunk, gets me thinkin' of you
What gets me thinkin' gets me drinkin' about you, too
