

Leave That

Old Mervs

You're gone all week
Bags down your eyes
Doesn't feel homely
And it's no surprise

Oh, you wanna leave that, leave that, leave that, leave that, leave it
You wanna be that, be that, be that, be that, be that

Oh, you get blown all weekend, just let it go
Then you wanna repeat it, just let it roll
You're going too far, going too far
Well, you want it, and I can't fight on it, all this time

Those lonely nights, when you're thinking about her
And all those lies, that you said when

Oh, you know, you'd never leave that, leave that Leave that, leave that, leave it
You wanna be that, be that, be that, be that, be that

Oh, you get blown all weekend, just let it go
Then you wanna repeat it, just let it roll
Well, you're going too far, going too far
Well, you want it, I can't fight on it, all this time

And I wasn't sure if I wanted to
And I wanna show you all what I would do
You'll leave that, you'll leave that, you'll leave that
You'll leave that, you'll leave that, you'll leave that

But you get blown all weekend, just let it go
And you wanna repeat it, just let it roll
And you're going too far, going too far
Well, you want it, I can't fight on it, all this time

You wanna leave that, leave that, leave that, leave that, leave it
You wanna be that, be that, be that, be that, be that
You wanna leave that, leave that, leave that, leave that, leave it
You wanna be that, be that, be that, be that, be that
