

Pissy Talk

Old Mervs

Every time that I get pissed
Can't help but, dream of shit to the fifty year old degen
Who's been around, 'cause like he's eighty
Talking for way too long, I'll go back home
Friends are gone, what the hell do I do from here?
The bartender's taking my beer

I talk too much
I talk too much
When I'm a little bit pissed
When I'm a little bit
I talk too much
I talk too much
When I'm a little bit pissed
When I'm a little bit pissed

And now I'm chatting to a chick
And I think she's fifty too
About, how much her husband sucks
And how her kids been playing up
I drew this too myself, all of the time
Well, these conversations are never short
And that's because of, pissy talk

I talk too much
I talk too much
When I'm a little bit pissed
When I'm a little bit
I talk too much
I talk too much
When I'm a little bit pissed
When I'm a little bit pissed
