

Wasting Time

Old Mervs

Calling back, I miss you more than you would know
Well, how'd you act when I was waiting for my show
'Cause you're always on my mind
But you are always on my side

Am I wasting time?
Am I wasting time?
'Cause I was wrong, you were gone and I was right
Or am I wasting time, with you?

Holding back, I wanna tell you how I feel
'Cause you were right, I was the one who needed help
Well, if cigarettes are burning
And you're getting by and it's early
Then you'll know, oh, you'll know

Am I wasting time?
Am I wasting time?
'Cause I was wrong, you were gone and I was right
Or am I wasting time?

Oh, hold me back tonight
Get me though the morning
I was here calling you out, when you were lying
How'd you wanna fight?
Every single night and day
Every single night and day

Am I wasting time?
Am I wasting time?
'Cause I was wrong, you were gone and I was right

'Cause I've been wasting time
Well, who knew?
Who knew?
It's true, nah nah, it's true
