Empire In Flames

Old

Down in the tomb of forgotten times
An ancient curse comes to be true
Old warriors from the chaos legions
Raise again their cursed swords

Fog comes forth to entwine the empire
A demonic horde full in black armour
March to the gates of humanity
To desecrate the sons of light

The breed of evil crys out for vengance
A vegance of blasphemic hate
With hearts of terror and black iron
Ash and dust will mark their ways

Fear the bloodgod's wrath of death
His soul of doom paralyses your heart
No white spell can stop the chaos
Your priests suffer in the flames of pain

The hordes of Satan bring doom and sorrow
Over all life on the earth
Cursed weapons slay all holy
Rusty chains don't let you escape
Deep black shadows rise on the sky
Watch your last time to the sun
Your last light you will see is your Dying empire in flames!

Flowers of life suffocate in the breath of doom
No more life rises from the ash
Holy water burns in the fires of chaos
No more life rises from the mist
