Wherever you go, darlin' I want you to know that baby I'll come when you call. Don't you hesitate honey, no matter how late baby, I'll come when you call.

When you're all alone and feelin' blue, when you can't get up off the ground, when you need someone there to help you see it through, I won't, won't let you down.

Just send me a wire, whatever your heart may desire baby, I'll come when you call. Just drop me a line, L.O.V.E. will do just fine baby, I'll come when you call.

I just want to be the one you need, I'll do anything for you.
I want to be the only one to share all your dreams and smile as they come true.

No ocean's too far, send me a letter in a jar baby, I'll come when you call. I won't miss a stroke, darlin' I swear it's no joke baby, I'll come when you call.

When everybody turns their back on you, I won't , won't let you down.
