

Not Enough For Me

Olga Buzova (Ольга Бузова)

Easy, simple. And now it doesn't seem
So endless here without you
Nights to-gether. But I don't really care
Whatever what you wanna do

In my Universe he was the one
The only one that I've ever been around
But it turned out that you're not irreplaceable'
And now I'm opening a whole new world

Not enough for me, not, not enough for me
Not enough for me, baby, not enough for me
Not enough for me, not, not enough for me
Now there's a whole new world, that I can see

Bigger, better. Now I am not afraid of leaving
By myself alone
You are grabber. It doesn't matter
'Cause I'm stronger on my own

In my Universe he was the one
The only one that I've ever been around
But it turned out that you're not irreplaceable'
And now I'm opening a whole new world

Not enough for me, not, not enough for me
Not enough for me, baby, not enough for me
Not enough for me, not, not enough for me
Now there's a whole new world, that I can see

Now there's a whole new world, that I can see
That I can see, I-I, that I can see
That I can see, I-I, that I can see
That I can see, I-I, that I can see
Now there's a whole new world, that I can see

I move closer to this new world I'm seeing Now living in
I will not let you hurt me anymore
I get the power from your feeling

In my Universe he was the one
The only one that I've ever been around
But it turned out that you're not irreplaceable'
And now I'm opening a whole new world

Not enough for me, not, not enough for me
Not enough for me, baby, not enough for me
Not enough for me, not, not enough for me
Now there's a whole new world, that I can see

Now there's a whole new world, that I can see
