Olive

Straight as a dye
On us we rely
Yet watch how my head is turning
Distracting my eye

It's no reflection on you,
Yet who would believe me
Troubled by the thought of it,
I can't deny

That I'm curious, never meant to hurt you
Just curious, I can't deny
That I'm curious, never have deceived you
Just curious, I cannot lie

Give me a reason
I'll hide my delight
Shamelessly I'll seize the moment
Just my needs in sight

It's no reflection on you,
Yet who would believe me
Troubled by the thought of it,
I can't deny

That I'm curious, never meant to hurt you
Just curious, I can't deny
That I'm curious, never have deceived you
Just curious, I cannot lie
