Push

Like what you see Love what you hear Smile when you feel My foolish tear

I'll break my silence now Hold back my pride I'll stake my claim on this In me I'll confide

Will you leave before the dawn
(please tell me)
Will I push or do you fall
(don't make me)
With the time you've had to learn
(please tell me)
Some respect is all you'll earn

Try as I might I've seen no light Must I believe in this You feed on greed

Sometimes I fight myself Question my mind Then I remember you Boasting your find

Will you leave before the dawn
(please tell me)
Will I push or do you fall
(don't make me)
With the time you've had to learn
(please tell me)
Some respect is all you'll earn

I'll break my silence now What's there to hide I'll stake my claim on this Proof that you've lied Olive
