

Always Love You Like A Good Old Dog

Oliver Anthony

Honey, you're like the crack of dawn
In the dead of spring
When the ground's thawin' and the birds are singing
Your wild eyes gets my heart to ringing
Every time I look

And I don't care when I'm an old man
What I've got and where I am
As long as you're there holding my hand
There ain't much else that means a damn

I love you like a good ole dog
I love you like a muscadine
I love you like a mud bowl back in high school
With all my buddies in the summertime
I'll always love you like a good ole dog

Well life ain't easy on a boy named Sue
Or a man busting his ass making them stew
And I'm sorry sometimes, I let it out on you
I thank God that you give it right back

And honey, I swear there'll come a day
Before we're old and our hair is gray
Where we can pack it all up, move away
Somewhere in West Virginia

Way on up on top of the hill
We won't have nothin' but time to kill
Where I'll have my hand in yours
And I'll be damn sure

I'll always love you like the crack of dawn
In the dead of spring when the Ground's thawin' and the birds are singing
Your wild eyes gets my heart to ringing
Every time I look

And I don't care when I'm an old man
What I've got, where I am
As long as you're there holdin' my hand and
There ain't much else that means a damn

I love you like a good ole dog
I love you like a muscadine wine
I love you like a mud bowl back in high school
With all my buddies in the summertime
I'll always love you like a good ole dog
