Oliver Tree

I'm sick of shouting
Fuck everyone who doubted
I always dreamed about it
I've been at it since 2000

No luck
Good chance you'll fall
No guarantees, stop acting cheap
It was never enough at all

Finally, I'm finding
Silver linings, you can catch me
Coattail riding
My golden suit is shiny
I've been shining since the 90's
Catch my eye and blind me
No counting coins and no tally points
It's never enough at all

Don't pretend you're someone else
Maybe you should be yourself
You made your life up you're somebody else
Why can't you just be yourself?

No luck
Good chance you'll fall
No guarantees, stop acting cheap
It was never enough at all

Finally, I'm finding
Silver linings, you can catch me
Coat tail riding
My golden suit is shiny
I've been shining since the 90's
Catch my eye and blind me
No counting coins, no tally points
It's never enough at all

I wanna see your soul
If you're dead inside, let me check your pulse
You should probably go get help
You don't really look like yourself
I wanna see your soul when you're breathing stops
Let me check your pulse
Better you than me
Flat-line when I go to sleep (when I go to sleep)
Flat-line when I go to sleep (when I go to sleep)
Flat-line when I go to sleep
