

A-Okay

Oliver Tree

I can't keep a straight face
No dear, I'm not kidding
I'm sick of the chase
I can feel my head still spinning
Digging my own grave
Thinking 'bout all I'm missing
Counting down the days
Baby, the clock is ticking

If you wait, I'll wait
Please, believe me
It's a-okay
But it won't be easy
Today's the day
Baby, I'm leaving
It's a-okay
But it won't be easy

As a matter of fact
We're both hurting
I've been breaking my back
Overworking
I'd go harder than that
But it's not worth it
Don't ask where I'm at
Or when I am returning

If you wait, I'll wait
Please, believe me
It's a-okay
But it won't be easy
Today's the day
Baby, I'm leaving
It's a-okay
But it won't be easy

I am living in the future
The past cannot be changed
I stay moving forward these days
There ain't no other way
I am living in the future
The past cannot be changed
I stay moving forward these days
At my own pace

If you wait, I'll wait
Please, believe me
It's a-okay
But it won't be easy
Today's the day
Baby, I'm leaving
It's a-okay
But it won't be easy
