

Battleship

Oliver Tree

Now we're both dead inside, it's true
No thanks to you, no thanks to you
It's true
No thanks to you, no thanks to you

I can't help you
You've been drowning on your own
You won't help me
You sunk your ship and took me along

I am thinking 'bout the future
Much to my chagrin
I'm stuck thinking 'bout tomorrow
My demise is imminent

I've been thinking 'bout my last breath
But the circle never ends
I'm still thinking 'bout the ending
I can feel it coming quick

I can't help you
You've been drowning on your own
You won't help me
You sunk your ship and took me along

I feel so sick of losing
Yeah, yeah, yeah
I'm so sick of whatcha doing
Yeah, yeah, yeah

You think that you're right when you're wrong
I really stuck by your side too long
Yeah, yeah, yeah
My time here has passed

I can't help you
You've been drowning on your own
You won't help me
You sunk your ship and took me along

And now I'm jumping off the side
'Cause you took me for a ride
When I asked you to stop
Then you made me face dive
'Cause you wouldn't let me off
Then you fed me tons of lies
Now we're both dead inside

It's true
No thanks to you, no thanks to you
It's true
No thanks to you, no thanks to you

I can't help you
You've been drowning on your own
You won't help me
You sunk your ship and took me along

I can't help you
You've been drowning on your own
You won't help me
You sunk your ship and took me along
