

Enemy

Oliver Tree

When you underrate your value
You underestimate how to
Be your own
And when you do and when you don't

Oh so, that's why you befriended me
She's a super villain working with the enemy
God damn, that'll be the death of me
She was always one step ahead of me

No regrets, she did what she wanna
She said golden days were upon us
But she turned summer into autumn
She was always one step ahead of me

Oh so, that's why you befriended me
She's a super villain working with the enemy
God damn, that'll be the death of me
She was always one step ahead of me

And when you do and when you don't
And when you do and when you don't

Oh so, that's why you befriended me
She's a super villain working with the enemy
God damn, that'll be the death of me
She was always one step ahead of me
