

Me, Myself & I

Oliver Tree

You are you
You're falling through
Got me thinking but it's still not you though
Wait, it's me
What you thought it'd be?
Someone else's but it's not your fault
It's mine

I'm still forgiven, no way
And I've been the outcast, it feels great
I highly doubt that, no way
I'm contradicting, all the stupid shit I say

You know I don't speak out
I'm feeling fairly weak, and I can barely speak
I started to freak out
'cause I can barely talk, I feel too weak to walk
I'm trying to leave now
I'm feeling fairly weak and I can barely speak
I started to freak out
'cause I can barely talk I feel too weak to walk

No, no way
Myself included
I don't really wanna be that way
No, no way
Myself included
I don't really wanna be that way

But you are you, you're falling through
Got me thinking but it's still not you though
Wait, it's me
What you thought it'd be?
Someone else's but it's not your fault
It's mine

No way, I thought it's great
"What the hell, was some kind of mistake"
That's you, what you thought it'd be?
Maybe something but it's not included
When I needed you, there's nothing else I really meant that Tell me what you want, you're still and now
And don't remember

No, no way
Myself included
I don't really wanna be that way
No, no way
Myself included
I don't really wanna be that way

I'm still forgiven, no way

You know I don't speak out

I'm feeling fairly weak, and I can barely speak
I'm feeling fairly weak, and I can barely speak
I started to freak out
