

Replacement

Oliver Tree

No, I'm not a saint
I've made some big mistakes
I've thrown so much away
Now I'm thinking how'd it go to waste
Too late

I've been replaced
And now forgotten for good
Here we go again

For now, I'm better off dead
I'll see you sometime again
For now, I'm better off dead
I'll see you sometime again
Here I go again

You were not a saint
You made your share of mistakes
You really pushed me away
You didn't give me my space
Too late

I've been replaced
And now forgotten for good
Here we go again

For now, I'm better off dead
I'll see you sometime again
For now, I'm better off dead
I'll see you sometime again
Here I go again

We were never saints
We both made mistakes
We both went our ways
We don't control our fate
Too late, I've been replaced
And now forgotten for good
Here I go again

For now, I'm better off dead
I'll see you sometime again
For now, I'm better off dead
I'll see you sometime again
Here I go again
