

This Is Separation

Oliver Tree

Don't tell me to go home
Staying so low
Until the sun sways out of the sky
Time seems to move so slow
Just leave me alone, no
It's easier if we don't try

Separation can hurt though
It's like the end of a circle
There's not an easy way to end it in sight
We both thought it could work though
But it just got worse, so

I said it's easier if we don't try

Because I'll be back when you're gone
And I know that I'll be back when you're gone

It moves me, it moves me
It moves me away
It moves me, it moves me
Day after day

Because I'll be back when you're gone
And I know that I'll be back when you're gone
I'll be back, I'll be back
I'll be back when you're gone

We both thought it could work though
But it just got worse so

I said it's easier if we don't try

Because I'll be back when you're gone
And I know that I'll be back when you're gone

It moves me, it moves me
It moves me away
It moves me, it moves me
Day after day

Because I'll be back when you're gone
And I know that I'll be back when you're gone

I'll be back, I'll be back
I'll be back when you're gone
